PREAMBLE

Islam - the true religion of Allah has ordered its believers to have mercy and to be merciful towards all creatures. The orphans are among those who need kindness and special attention. Orphans, according to Islamic definitions are those childrens, who are left with no protections from their fathers due to death. Our religion shows a great deal of sympathy for orphans. We see and understand it clearly when we look at the Quran; we will see that the word "orphan" is mentioned 23 times in 12 different forms in 12 different Surahs or chapters. Quran says;

"And be good to the orphans and the very poor, speak kindly to men, make prayer, and give in charity." (Al-Quran 2:83)

In another Surah, Quran asks its believers to spend their wealth in charity and to give it to the orphans:

"They ask thee what they should spend (In charity). Say: Whatever ye spend that is good is for parents and kindred and orphans and those in want and for." (Al-Quran 2:215)

According to Islamaic Law (Shari'ah), Muslims are bound to show benevolence and care for orphans. The Holy Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W.) once said that a person who cares for an orphaned child will be in Paradise with him, and motioned to show that they would be as close as two fingers of a single hand. Hazrat Muhammad (S.A.W.) himself adopted a former slave and raised him with the same care as if he was his own son. About orphans, our Holy Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W.) once said, "The most loved homes to Allah, mighty & sublime, are homes in which the orphan is honored."

INTRODUCTION

An Pakistan Sweet Home (Orphanage) is an institution devoted to take care of children whose parents either one or both are deceased, Pakistan Sweet Home (Orphanage)s are a way of providing them care and housing. Foster care and more extensive adoption programs have been the preferred practice in many developed nations. This philosophy and universally accepted wisdom has constrained Pakistan Bait-ul-Mal to take initiative towards establishment of Pakistan Sweet Home (Orphanage) where emotional wounds will be healed and confidence built of orphans, who have become disregarded individuals of society as a result of poverty growth and poor economic conditions.
