1.4 Rights of Pakistan Baitul Mal:

Pakistan Bait-ul-Mal reserves the right to accept any proposal, in whole or in part. The procuring agency shall upon request communicate to any supplier or contractor who submitted a bid or proposal, the grounds for its rejection of all bids or proposals, but is not required to justify those grounds. PBM reserves the right to invalidate any proposal received from a Bidder who has previously failed to perform properly or complete contracts on time, or a proposal received from a Bidder who, in the opinion of PBM, is not in a position to perform the contract. PBM shall not be held responsible for any cost incurred by the Bidder in preparing the response to this Tender. The Bidder agrees to be bound by the decision of PBM as whether her/his proposal meets the requirements stated in the proposal. Specifically, PBM reserves the right to:

- Contract any or all items given in List as per Annex-A & B;
- Request additional supporting or supplementary data from the bidder(s);
- Accept any proposal in whole or in part;
- Contact any number of candidates as required to achieve the overall evaluation & objectives.

1.5 Proposal Evaluation (A):

The Tender Committee will examine the proposals whether they are complete in all respects, whether any computational errors have been made, whether the documents have been properly signed, and whether the proposals are generally in order. Arithmetical errors will be rectified on the following basis: If there is discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected. If the Bidder does not accept the correction of errors, his/her proposal will be rejected. If there is a discrepancy between words and figures the amount in words will prevail.

1.6 Proposal Evaluation (B):

Proposal evaluation shall include the following:

1. Provision of samples of all Dress / Clothing items as per annexure "A & B" of the tender document;
2. Willingness of the firm to deliver the Dress / Clothing items to its respective stations as per annexure "C" of the tender document after award of contract;
3. Willingness of the firm to supply Dress / Clothing according to the exact sizes of the Children enrolled in PBM-PSHs at Khyber Pakhtunkhwa;
4. Willingness of the firm to visit each PBM-PSHs at Khyber Pakhtunkhwa as per annexure "C" for collection of exact sizes of the enrolled children before supply of Dress / Clothing;
5. Willingness of the firm to replace the Dress / Clothing items if it doesn't show correlation to the sizes of (any / all) students / Children;

6. Willingness of the firm to deliver separate kits of Dress / Clothing to the respective Pakistan Sweet Homes in case of replacement / fresh enrolment of children after supply of Dress / Clothing.
7. Willingness of the firm to immediately replace the Dress / Clothing, if its quality is found inferior to the sample provided, any time during continuation of the contract;
8. Willingness of the firm to replace the Dress / Clothing if the number of Children changes in any PSH after collection of sizes.

The Tender Committee will also evaluate the samples of all items of Dress / Clothing and give its report as to whether the samples are acceptable or not acceptable.

1.7 Announcement of Evaluation Reports:

The Procuring Agency shall announce the results of bid evaluation in the form of a report giving justification for acceptance or rejection of bids at least ten days prior to the award of procurement contract.

1.8 Acceptance of Bids:

The bidder with the overall lowest evaluated bid, if not in conflict with Procedures, Rules, Terms and Conditions of the Tender Document and any other law, rules, regulations or policy of the Federal Government, shall be awarded the procurement contract.

1.9 Closing of contract:

- a. Except for defect liability or maintenance by the supplier or contractor, as specified in the conditions of contract, performance of the contract shall be deemed close on the issue of overall delivery certificate or taking over certificate which shall be issued within “30” thirty days of final taking over of goods or receiving the deliverables or completion of works enabling the supplier or contractor to submit final bill and the auditors to do substantial audit.
- b. In case of defect liability or maintenance period, defect liability certificate shall be issued within thirty days of the expiry of the said period enabling the supplier or contractor to submit the final bill. Except for unsettled claims, which shall be resolved through arbitration, the bill shall be paid within the time given in the conditions of contract, which shall not exceed sixty days to close the contract for final audit.

1.10 Property of Pakistan Baitul Mal:

This Tender Document, alongwith any responses thereto, shall be considered the property of PBM and the proposals will not be returned to their originators. However, the samples presented by bidders shall be returned to their originators except to the successful Bidder against which material shall be tallied during its delivery to respective station (s). In submitting this proposal the bidder will accept the decision of PBM as to whether the proposal meets the requirements started in this Tender Document.

1.11 Unethical Behaviour:

PBM strictly enforces a policy of zero tolerance concerning unethical, nonprofessional or fraudulent acts of bidders. Accordingly, any registered bidder that is found to have undertaken unethical, non professional or fraudulent activities will be suspended or forbidden to continue business relations with PBM.

1.12 Corrupt and Fraudulent Practices:

PBM requires that all bidders associated with this invitation to Bid observe the highest standard of the ethics during procurement and execution of the work. In pursuance to this policy, PBM defines as;

- a. Corrupt practices mean the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting for anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in the execution of a contract, and
- b. Fraudulent practice means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of the client, and includes collusive practice among bidders (prior to or after bid submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the client of the benefits of free and open competition.
- c. Will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the selected supplier/contractor have engaged in any corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for the contract in question.
- d. Will declare a bidder ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stated period of time, to be awarded a PBM contract if at any time it determines that it has engaged in any corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for, or in executing a PBM contract.

1.13 Rights of PBM (Late delivery):

In case of failure by the Contractor to perform under the terms and conditions of this contract, PBM shall exercise one or more of the following rights:

- a. Procure all or any of the items as per List at Annex-A & B from other sources, in such event PBM may hold the Contractor responsible for any excess cost occasioned thereby. In exercising such rights PBM shall mitigate its damages in good faith;
- b. Terminate the contract without any liability for termination charges or any other liability of any kind thereof;
- c. For late delivery of items as per List at Annex-A & B or items which do not meet the required specification, quality and quantity, size and are therefore rejected by the PBM, claim liquidated damages from the contractor and deducts 0.2 % of the value of the rate of items per additional day of delay. The payment or deduction of such liquidated damages shall not relieve the Contractor from any of its other obligations and liabilities pursuant to this Contract.

1.14 Delivery Date:

Delivery date to be understood as the time the contract work is completed at the locations indicated under Delivery Terms.

2.0 TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT:

The quality and quantity of these items will further be determined from the Acknowledgment/s and Certificate of Quality Assurance by Assistant Director / District Officer & Incharge PSH of concerned district, after actually examining, inspecting the total items as per size, specification and requirements.

2.6 Sales Tax and other Government Duties:

All taxes, duties, octroi charges, sales tax and other Government charges are the responsibility of the supplier.

2.7 Failure and Termination:

If the Contractor fails to deliver any of all of the deliverables within the time period(s) specified in the contract, or fails to perform any of the terms, conditions, or obligations of the contract, or should the Contractor be adjudged bankrupt, or be liquidated or become insolvent, or should the contractor make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or should a Receiver be appointed on account of the insolvency of the contractor, the Tender Committee at PBM Provincial Office Khyber Pakhtunkhwa may, without prejudice to any other right or remedy it may under the terms of these conditions, terminate the Contract, forthwith, in whole or in part, upon thirty (30) days notice to the contractor. OR to purchase from elsewhere without notice to Contractor at Contractor's risk and cost, OR to terminate the contract at the risk and cost of the Contractor alongwith forfeiture 05 % security deposit.

In the event of action being taken above, the Contractor shall be liable for any loss, which the PBM may suffer on that account but the Contractor shall not be entitled to any gain on purchase made against the supply order.

PBM reserves the right to terminate without cause Contract at any time upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Contractor. In the event of any termination no payment shall be due from PBM to the Contractor except for the work and services satisfactorily performed in conformity with the expressed terms of this contract.

Upon the giving of such notice, the Contractor shall have no claim for any further payment, but shall remain liable to PBM for reasonable loss or damage which may be suffered by PBM for reason of the default. The Contractor shall not be liable for any loss or damage if the failure to perform the contract arises out of force majeure.

Upon termination of the Contract, PBM may require the contractor to deliver any finished work which has not been delivered and accepted, prior to such termination and any material or work-in-process related specifically to this contract. Subject to deduction of any claim PBM may have arising out of this Contract or termination, PBM will pay the value of all such finished work delivered and accepted by PBM. If during the course of execution of the contract your firm is black-listed by PBM, the purchaser may proceed with all or any of the actions detailed below:

- a. To allow the contract to run its course till completed in accordance with the terms and conditions of contract.
- b. To stop further supplies with or without financial repercussions.
- c. To cancel the contract with or without reservation of rights.

The initiation of arbitral proceedings in accordance with Article 'Settlement of Disputes' shall not be deemed a termination of this Contract.

2.8 Sub-Contracting:

In the event the Contractor requires the services of the subcontractor, the Contractor shall obtain the prior approval and clearance of PBM for all sub-contractors. The approval of PBM of a sub-contractor shall not relieve the Contractor of any of its obligations under this Contract. The terms of any sub-contract shall be subject to and in conformity with the provisions of this Contract.

2.9 Assignment and Insolvency:

The contractor shall not, except after obtaining the written consent of PBM, assign, transfer, pledge or make other dispositions of the Contract, or any part thereof, of the Contractor's right or obligations under this Contract.

Should the Contractor become insolvent or should control of the Contractor change by virtue of insolvency, PBM may, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies, terminate the Contract by giving the Contractor written notice of termination.

2.10 Settlement of Disputes:

a. Amicable Settlement:

The parties shall use their best efforts to settle amicably any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of, or relating to this Contract by making reference to the original documentation retained on record.

b. Arbitration:

Any dispute, controversy or claim between the Parties arising out of this Contract or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, unless settled amicably under the preceding paragraph of this Article within 30 days after receipt by one Party or the other Party's request for such amicable settlement, shall be referred by either Party for arbitration to the Managing Director PBM. The Parties shall be bound by any arbitration award rendered as a result of such arbitration as the final adjudication of any such controversy, claim or dispute.

2.11 Authority to Modify:

No modification or change in this Contract, no waiver of any of its provisions or any additional contractual relationship of any kind with the Contractor shall be valid and enforceable against PBM unless provided by an amendment to this Contract signed by the Director PBM KP.

2.12 Force Majeure, Other Changes in Conditions:

- a. In the event of and as soon as possible after the occurrence of any cause constituting force majeure, the contractor shall give notice and full particulars in writing to PBM of such occurrence or change if the Contractor is thereby rendered unable, wholly or in part, to perform its obligations and meet its responsibilities under this contract. The contractor shall also notify PBM of any other changes in conditions or the occurrence of any event which interferes or threaten to interfere with its performance of the Contract. On receipt of the notice required under this Article, PBM shall take such actions, as, in its sole discretion; it considers to be appropriate or necessary in the circumstances, including the granting to the Contractor of a reasonable extension of time in which to perform its obligations under the Contract.
- b. If the Contractor is rendered permanently unable, wholly, or in part, by reason of force majeure, to perform its obligations and meet its responsibilities under this Contract, PBM shall have the right to suspend or terminate this Contract on the same terms and conditions as are provided for in Article 'Termination', except that the period of notice shall be seven (07) days instead of thirty (30) days.
- c. Force majeure as used in this Article means acts of God, war (whether declared or not), invasion, revolution, insurrection, lockouts, strikes, restrictions imposed by the Government in the matter of import/export, injunction granted by a lawful court restraining the Contractor from executing the contract unless such injection was due to any alleged irregularity committed by the Contractor or other acts of a similar nature or force.

2.13 Responsibility for Executing the Contract:

The supplier shall be entirely responsible for the successful execution of the contract in all respects and in accordance with the terms and conditions as specified in the contract including the schedule.

2.14 Demurrage:

Demurrage charges shall be incurred due to any of the reasons mentioned below and the same shall be deducted from the Contractor bills or recovered from the Contractor as a separate item (the decision of the purchaser, regarding fixation of responsibility in this connection shall be binding upon the Contractor): -

- i. Owing to delay in forwarding/ delivery of relevant items etc.
- ii. Defective marking or packing of the items ordered or any other reason.

2.15 Inspection and Rejection:

- a. The Inspection Committee may reject a part or the whole of the consignment tendered for inspection, if after inspection such portion there of as Committee may decide in its discretion, if Committee is satisfied that the consignment is below the requirements of the particulars governing the supply given in the Purchase Order;
- b. The decision of the Inspection Committee shall be binding upon the Contractor;
- c. If the items are rejected as aforesaid than without prejudice to the right of the Purchaser the Contractor may submit items in replacement of those rejected but resubmission will not mean extension of delivery period;
- d. On final rejection the Purchaser shall have, the following rights:-
  - i. To purchase the rejected items at contractors cost and expense;

ii. To terminate the contract and recover the loss, the purchaser thereby incurs.

2.16 Despatch of Items:

Items delivered under the contract shall be despatched to respective stations. In case the loss, if any, due to defective or incorrect packing/causing damage to items or misplaced during transportation shall be on the Contractor's account. This shall be replaced on complaint.

2.17 Law Governing the Contract:

The contract shall be governed by the Laws of Pakistan as amended from time to time.

Subject to the above conditions, a binding contract has been concluded with the issuance of this letter and that the provision of this contract shall be binding on the Contractor.

The undersigned, having read the Terms and Conditions set out or specified in this document, hereby offers to supply any or all of the items specified in Annex-A & B at the price or prices quoted therein, in accordance with any specifications stated and subject to the Terms and Conditions set out or specified in the document.
